

Application Guide for Doshisha University Graduate Student Scholarship for Overseas Research

Doshisha University calls for applicants for the “Doshisha University Graduate Student Scholarship for Overseas Research” as follows.

1. Eligible Students

Students who meet all of the following requirements are eligible to apply for the scholarship.

- 1) A graduate student of Doshisha University who goes abroad with research supervision by his/her academic supervisor or as part of a graduate program course.
- 2) The period of the said research is at least ten days and not more than three months.
- 3) The student can obtain recommendation from his/her academic supervisor or the course instructor regarding application for this scholarship.
- 4) The student has not received this scholarship before in the academic year.

2. Application Deadline

Applicants must submit the application document by one month prior to departure in principle.

3. Application Document

Doshisha University Graduate Student Scholarship for Overseas Research Application Form

4. Place of Submission

Office of the Graduate School where the Student is Affiliated to

5. Amount of Scholarship

100,000 yen

※The scholarship will be paid after all the documents specified in “3. Application Document” and “6. Obligations” have been submitted and reviewed.

6. Obligations

Graduate students who receive this scholarship must submit the following documents immediately after returning to Japan.

Place of Submission

Office of International Affairs on either campus

- 1) Doshisha University Graduate Student Scholarship for Overseas Research Report of Accomplishment
- 2) An item that confirms that the student has visited the said country (e.g. boarding pass stubs, a photocopy of the page of the passport that has departure and entry stamps)
- 3) A document that confirms that the student has conducted overseas research for ten days or more (e.g. a letter of acceptance, a letter of invitation, a record of visit etc.)

※Those who cannot obtain “a document that confirms that the student has conducted overseas research for ten days or more ” must submit instead the “Certificate of Research Activities Abroad”

7. Important Notes

- 1) This scholarship shall not be provided for Student Exchange Program. Exchange students and candidates to partner institutions should apply for “Doshisha University Scholarship for Student Exchange Programs” during the prescribed application period.
- 2) Those applying for this scholarship and traveling abroad are responsible for their own risk management during travel. Accepting applications for this scholarship shall not make Doshisha University responsible for the risk management of the applicants.
- 3) The Report of Accomplishment should be appropriate in content and length for receiving this scholarship.