'My name is Anna, a second year student studying Japanese at Doshisha University. I come from the United Kingdom and my home university is the University of Leeds. I am currently 19 years old. My major is Chinese and Japanese Studies and I hope to become a translator in the future. My hobbies include: reading, listening to music and learning languages. I chose to study in Doshisha as a result of the rich culture Kyoto has to offer as well as the language opportunities I could gain during my time in Doshisha. I hope I can help with any questions about studying abroad that you might have!'
