Hello! My name is Rebecca and I'm from Italy. I study at the University of Turin (UniTo), where I major in languages for tourism. My main interests are art, literature, and good food! Indeed, I think there's nothing better than sitting in a cute café and enjoying a slice of cake while reading a good book!

I also love living in places surrounded by history, and from this point of view, I think Turin and Kyoto are very similar! Did you know that Turin, just like Kyoto, was once a former capital?

If you'd like to learn more about Turin, Italy or student life in Europe, feel free to come and talk to me!
